3,290.

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1889.

PUMPING O'BYRNE.

The Oystermen's Counsel on the Dock-Investigation Rack.

He Refuses to Tell What He Did with the $13,000 Fee.

Witness and Investigators Indulge in a Bitter Wrangle.

Col. John O'Byrne, the County Democracy orator, was on hand when Commissioners of Ac counts Holahan and Barker and Corporation Counsel Clark resumed their work of turning over the Dock Department to-day. Col. O'Byrne's sciatica was better on Saturday, and still better to-day; but the Colonel's usual Fort Jervis National Bank, and Freshdent M. C. Everitt, of the First National Bank of Port Jervis.

The former testified that there was credited to the account of the wife of Dockmaster Bogart's appointment in August, 1887, and President Everitt said that she deposited in his bank $2,500 during the past eleven months.

Then Col. O'Byrne was called. Commissioner Rolashan began to read the usual oath when Col. O'Byrne stopped him.

"I swear by the unlifted hand, he said.
Commissioner Holahan began again in the usual formula for swearing by unlifted hand, when Col. O'Byrne sgain interposed and recited solemnly: I swear by the Almighty and everything God, to tell the truth, as I hope for happiness in the future life."

Abey Guber, who appeared as counsel for O'Byrne, demanded that the record be entered as to what Col. O'Byrne was called for, and desiged to know what Col. O'Byrne's transaction with the Oystermen's Association had to do with the investigation of the Dock Department.

But Corporation Counsel Clark unfully replied that is was not necessary to put the cause of subpossa on the record, and what the oystermen's Business had to do with the Dock Department might come out in the examination.

Mr. Gerbor claimed that the law under which men's Easine's had to do with the Dock Department might come out in the examination.

Mr. Genber claimed that the law under which the investigation was being conducted was unconstitutional, because it gave the Commissioners the powers of a court, but he got only a sarcast c smile in reply.

Col. O'Byrne began by declaring that the stories that he had been dodging subpeens service and playing sick were cruelly wrong. He had been sick and he had come down at the earliest opportunity, and as soon as he had been informed that he was wanted.

Then Col. O'Byrne said that a committee from the Oystermen's Association called on him last February. James W. Boyle was one of them, and they asked if he could not do something to secure for them a lease of dock privileges.

thing to secure for them a lease of dock privi-leges.

He accompanied them to the Dock Depart-ment to see what could be done. He was told that it was impossible, and after an examina-tion of the law he concluded that a legislative act must be obtained, and he then told the Com-mittee that his counsel fee would be $15,000. Col. O'Byrne then related that he called at the Dock Department several times, and he wanted to say that so far as he knew there were no private rooms of Commissioners in the build-ing. The offices were en suite, and he had in-terviewed Commissioner Post there several times.

times.

Commissioner Post interrupted here with

How many times? Didn't you see Judge
Matthews, too?

Col. O'Byrne said he had seen Commissioner
Matthews twice or three times, but Matthews was 'grumpy' and not agreeable. He had, therefore, done most of his business with Mr.
Post.

Post.

"I never saw you there on more than two occasions," replied Commissioner Post, Ool. O'Byrne told how he drew up the oystermen's bil and how Corporation Counsel Beekman added the amendment, in which form it was man added the amendment, in which form it was passed.

About the counsel fee Col. O'Byrne remembered that it was paid by the Committee in parcels—$6,000 was paid before the passage of the resolution giving the permit to the oystermen and the balance afterwards. The first was paid the day before and another the day after the resolution was passed.

Were not all these payments in cash?" asked Mr. Clark.

Col. O'Byrne said they were, but he declared that he did not request that the fee be paid in carh.

Ca.h.

He would not awear to this, but he felt sure that he made no such request, and he objected to replying to a question as to what he did with honey so received, here was a wrangle between Col. O'Byrne and Gruber on one side, and the Corporation unsel and Commissioners of Accounts on the thy, the Commissioners ordered the witness to answer, and then Col. O'Byrne refused point blank of the ground that what he did with the money was his private matter and had nothing to do with the Dock Department.

He would say that not a dollar went to any member or employee of the Dock Department.

Being pressed hard Col. O'Byrne said: 'I Being pressed hard Col. O'Byrne said: 'I was a portion of that money for my own private our poses. I paid a portion of it to some people.' on further than that he would not answer, alwigh commanded to do so by the Commissioners.

Through other witnesses these facts had been rough other witnesses these facts had been

Through other witnesses these facts had been obtained:
On July 12 H. F. Merrill paid to Col. O'Byrne $6,188,24; on July 20 Merrill paid him $2.088,70; on July 24 the last payment, $4.753,28, was paid by Merrill.
Oysterman Foster got the first sum in a check. He cashed the check at the People's Bank and paid it, like all the other payments, in cash.
Col. O'Byrne said he had opened a bank account since July, and perhaps part of the $13,000 fee had found its way into his bank.
Regarding the fee he thought it a very reasonable one, and not larger than many others he had received.

had received.

He said that it required no appearance by him at Albany to push the bill.

Notwithstanding the fact that the oystermen's permit could be revoked at any time Col. O'Byrne thought the bill was a very valuable institution.

Institution.

The Colonel declined to give an opinion on his services for that $13,000 from a logal stand-his services for that $13,000 from a logal standpoint.

The Colonel thought it was quite likely that he had been informed by one of the Commissioners that there was no doubt but what the permit would pass the Board.

He did not remember whether James W.
Boyle remained in his office after the other members of the Committee had made the first payment of $6, 188, 24 for counsel fee, and would not answer the question as to whether he had paid Boyle a part of the money just received, sithough commanded to do so by the Commissioners.

THE "Canon of Presention" always at hand for soughe and aide. Young & Smytte's Stick Licerton.

End, Victoria Nyanza, Safely.

After Much Urging.

Stanley Writes to Sir William Mc-Kinnon of His Doings.

pointment, after an almost continuous march of | Trust law. 1,300 miles, at discovering that Mr. Jephson and Emin Pasha, instead of conducting the garrison of Fort Bodo to Nyanza as promised, had allowed themselves to be made prisoners al- Louis, is also one of the noted corporations to most on the same day they were expected by the garrison of Fort Bodo to reach them. Feb. 6, 1889, Jephson arrived at Stanley camp at Kavalli and startled him by announcing: "Sentiment is the Pasha's worst enemy No one keeps Emin Pasha back but Emin Pasha or Byrne's scistics was better on Saturday, and still better to-day: but the Colonel's usual serenity of temper was quite sciatic.

President Edwin A. Post, of the Dock Commission. appeared at the opening of the proceedings this morning. He strode up to the table and, addressing the Commissioners, announced:

"I have come as a memer of the Dock Commission to ask permission to sit and listen to the testimony given here."

Commissioner Holahan called the bluff with cool dexterity, replying:

"Certainly. Commissioner Post. An invitation was extended by us long ago to the Dock Commissioners to be present during this investigation."

While this was going on Col. O'Byrne was clamoring to be sworn as the first witness of the day, but two strangers were given the protecting.

They were Cashier William E. Scott, of the Port Jervis, National Bank, and President M. C. Everitt, of the First National Bank of Port Jervis National Bank, and President for the secount of the wife of Dockmaster Bogart's appointment in August. 1887, and President M. C. Everitt said that she deposited in his bank 25,500 during the period since Bogart's appointment in August. 1887, and President M. Commissioner Holahan began again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne was called. Commissioner Holahan began again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again interposed and recited hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in interposed and recited hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again in the usual formula for swearing by uplitted hand, when Col. O'Byrne again i Jephson said the Pasha seemed anxious to leave the country, but was very much undecided as to the conditions of his departure.

Stanley concludes his letter by announcing his departure from Kafurro Aug. 6, 1889.

A Berlin despatch says that Dr. Schweinfurth has Jeceived a letter from Emin Pasha, dated "Aug. 28, Mission Station, Ussambrio, Victoria Nyanza," saying that he hopes soon to give a complete account of his experiences, including his union with Stanley and march from the Albert Nyanza.

He has some fine botanical specimens and writes that his eyes trouble him greatly.

A letter from Stanley, dated Sept. 3, to E. Marston, London, amounces his safe arrival at Church Missionary Society's Station, south end of Victoria Nyanza, after much hardship and a sickness of twenty-eight days, during which he nearly died.

ROYAL CHILDREN IN SESSION.

Annual Meeting of the Order of King's Sons and Daughters.

The annual public meeting of the Order of the King's Daughters and the King's Sons began to-day at the Broadway Tabernacle, and in spite of the inclemency of the weather large attendance.

Devotional services were held from 11 o'clock till noon, and preparation; were made for the work of this afternoon and evening. Miss Susan B. Schenck occupied the chair and made an ad-

H. Schenck occupied the chair and made an address.

Five-minute reports were made by Mrv. C. de P. Field on Foreign Missions; Miss Susan B. Schenck, on Home Missions; Mrs. Willis A. Barnes, on Temperance; Mrs. Willis A. Barnes, on City Evangelization; Miss Rate Bond, on Charity Organization; Mrs. I. C. Davis, on Working Women; Mrs. F. Bottome, on Work Among Men and Boys; and Mrs. Theodore Irving, on Work Among the Indians.

The Quetations.

5 55 0 200	A Part Com.	Pigh	Low.
American Cotton Oil	1.234	32%	3114
Atlantic & Pacific.	11.4	1354	Dita.
Atchison Topoka & Santa Fo	3431.4	38%	3414
Brunswick Land	3114	3444	20.512
Canadian Pacific	73.4	7357	20012
		2.220	1.773
Canada Southern	D414	3278	127679
Chesapeake & Ohio Cnesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd	28	28	35.624
Coesapeake & Ohio 1st pfd	6719	6734	0094
Chesapeane & Ohio 2d pid	415	4014	45
		55	5450
Ohic., Bur. & Quiner Chicago & Northwest Chic., Mil. & St. Paul. Chic., Rock Is and & Pacific	10654	106%	106
William Bar, a Samor.	3 3 3 1 2	11334	11394
Chicago & Northwest	* 5177	711
Chic., mit. & St. Paul.	2019	7.7.29	7.0%
Chic., Rock Is and a Pacinc	Others.	9942	111119
Cleve., Cla . Chic. & St. Louis	74	7.5	7817
Cleve., Cin., Chic. & St. Louis Cleve., Cin., Chic. & St. Louis pfc Co. & Ho. & Conl.	0816	9856	9812
Co. A Ho. v. Co.	18	18	18
Colorado Coal & Iron	35	28	84
Delement Look & Western	142	149	14156
Detamate, Dack, a mentern.	14814	14854	4700
Delaware & Hudson.	1.9079		12079
Colorado Coal & Iron Delaware, Lack, & Western Delaware & Hudson Den, & Hio Grande Western	1814	1814	14815
		3894	375
E. fenn., Va. & Ga. 2d prd	2354	2337	243636
E. fenn., va. & tia. 2d prd Lake Shore Louisville & Nashville	10636	10714	103%
Lantavilla & Nachvilla	8544	8586	8516
Minneapolis & St. Louis	412	412	412
Missouri Paoifie	6914	6946	6992
Missouri Facilie		1014	114
Nat. Lead Trust	19114	* A4779
New Jersey Central	12114	12114	13116
New York Central	136%	100%	100%
N Y. & New England	4416	4 196	4:394
N. Y., Chie. & St. Louis. N. Y. Chie. & St. L. 1st pref N. Y., Lake Erie & West.	18	18	14
N V Chie & M. L. lat prof.	73	7:234	7.2
N V Lake Frie & West	284	284	28
N. Y. Lake Erie & Western pfd	6634	8617	eiet
Norfolk & West pref	00%	6012	6014
MOSTOLE & ALGOR BLOST		1511	33"
Northern Pacific	33	3212	200
Northern Pacine pro	7.7	73	1.098
Ohio, in l. & West		- M
Ohio & Mississipi	23	243.66	273
Ontario A Western Or, Transcontinental	99	2236	222
Or Transcontinental	3034	3697	231196
Oregon i nerovement	40	4.27	40
Oregon Short Line	56	71-14	6714
Pacity Mail	35	12.5	412
Pacific S'All.	110%	110%	10034
Pipe Line certificates	419	*1177
Philadembia & Reading	4.134	4154	41/25
Rich & West Point Ter.	147 (%)	2356	2137
St Paul, Minn. & Manitobs	106%	10632	108%
St. Paul, Monn. & Man. rights St. Louis & San Fran. pfd	13	13	1294
St. Louis & San Fran mfd.	51	51	40
Southern Pacific	36%	3614	3546
Sugar Refineries		7114	6.32
Dugar Benuvius	01.14	2012	2017
Texas Pacific	700	75	711
Tenu. Ceal & Irop.	10234	10214	10236
Tenu. Ceal & Iron	10279	+1/2/m
		92	92.
Union Pacific	70	70	6674
Virginia Midland	38%	3896	3.70
Wahash St. L. & Pacific pfd	32	32	32
West Union Tele	R416	8436	84
Union Pacette. Virginia Midland Wabash, St. L. & Pacific pfd West, Union Tele. Wheeling & Lake Erie.	GC 82	6734	66%
At the fight of Twee Place	31%	2017	3114
Wis. Central	17.7%	2000	20.00

TWO POLICEMEN BEATEN.

The Probation Man Struck a Hard Crowd

On His First Night. Patrick and Richard Barrett and Thomas Kerrigan were arraigned in the Essex Market Court this morning charged with assaulting Policeman Lee, of the Madison street station. Lee's head was swathed in bandages.

Lee was breaking in a probationary policeman named floran on faturday night, and attempted to arrest Patrick Barrett, the leader of a sang who were making a noise in front of 126 Cherry street.

treet.
Lee was knocked down and kicked, while
Moran was struck on the head with a brick.
The prisoners were arrested last night and were sent up for thirty days each.

Colguzo's Perfumes for the Holidays. No gift is mere acceptable or genteel. *.*

STANLEY WAS ILL. TRUSTS ATTACKED. SHE'S CALM NOW

But He Recovered and Reached South Missouri's Sweeping Law Against Them Hanna Southworth Preparing for Enforced To-Day.

Emin Pasha Joins Him at Kavalli Seven Hundred Charters Revoked by the Secretary of State.

> They Failed to Comply with the Requirements of the New Law.

A London despatch states that our model of the McKinnon has received a long letter from Stanley dated Kafurro Arab Settlement, Kathis morning issued a proclamation revoking the charters of seven hundred Missouri corporation to cumply with the new Antitions for failing to comply with the new Anti-

Among the charters in the list as revoked is the Western Union Telegraph Company. The Simmons Hardware Company, of St.

In addition to a revocation of charter the active corporations which have disregarded the law will be proceeded against in the courts. Some 250 foreign corporations transacting business in this State have also been notified that they have failed to comply with the law in not making returns.

not making roturns.

The Secretary of State cannot revoke their charters, but the law requires him to serve thirty-day notices, after which the officials can be proceeded against.

Organ-Grinders to be Allowed to Resume and the sections of the city in which they are to

The embargo will not be recommended to be removed from the bands, it is said, because removed from the bands, it is said, because of the attentions objections of organized labor, which has proved to the satisfaction of the Committee that most of the musicians composing these bands are imported on contracts and compete with regularly organized bands composed of citizens by offering their services at minously low rates.

The labor organizations see no harm in the organ-grinders, and, in fact, say that they never petitioned for their exile from the city, and are perfectly willing that they should return and bring loy to the hearts of the children of the poor.

This is the report which the Committee on Law, it is said, will make as the meeting of the Board of Aldermen to-morrow.

That it will be adopted as presented, however, is not so certain.

is not so certain.

A large number of the members of the Board, who voted for the banishment of all of the who voted for the banishment of all of the musicians, have since expressed regret for their part in the matter, and a desire to remedy the wrong which they have done.

These Aldermen have said that they will vote for a repeal of the obnexious law, although a number of them are anxious that only citizens of the United States be allowed to make music on the streets, thus shutting out the imported musicians, who are said to come here under contract only to carry their earnings back for investment in the Fatheriand.

A NEW POLICE JUSTICE.

According to the terms of the Consolidation act, the term of Jacob M. Patterson, one of the three Republican Police Justices, expires to-day. Justice Patterson will cease to possess the powers of a magistrate with the last stroke of the clock at midnight.

This short lease of power may mean a great

This short lease of power may mean a great deal to Tammany Hall.

To-night is the regular meeting of the Board of Police Justices.

Judge Patterson has a right to sit as a member of that Board until 12 o'clock.

Tammany has six men in the Board on whom it can depend as being stanch and true.

Judge Patrick Gavan Duffy has been acting independently since his deposition as leader of the First Assembly District.

The County Democracy has five members and the Republicans three.

These, with or without Judge Duffy, combined against the Tammany members, could, in the short time alloted them, dispose of many thousands of dollars worth of patronage for periods of from two to three years, could they come to an agreement as to the distribution of the spoils, which they have failed in doing up to the present time.

o the present time. Matters are or have been complicated for vari-

Matters are or have been complicated for various reasons.

Both the Republican Justices. Smith and Patterson, have hoped for reappointment at the hands of Mayor Grant.

Judge Henry Murray has been accused of Tammany leanings and so has Judge Roilly, the Conity Democracy leader of the Third assembly District, who is now seriously ill with pneumonis at his home in Marion street.

Judge Duffy has wanted his share of the appointments, and, with all the clashing of adverse interests, the shutting out of Tammany from the police court patronage has been driayed until the last moment.

By to-morrow Tammany could have a working majority with Judge Duffy by the appointment of a successor to Judge Patterson.

To-night's meeting of the Board is looked forward to with anxious interest by all local politicians, as it is thought that Judge Power meditates a coup which will shut Tammany out for some time to come.

Mayor Grant was not certain that he would appoint a successor to Justice Patterson to-day

"If I do," he said to an Evening World reporter." it will not occur until late this afternoon."

Police Justice McMahon, Tammany, said te-

Police Justice McMahon, Tammany, said to-day that he counted on the appointment of a successor to Judge Patterson, to give the neces-sary majority to Tammany Hall, to-night, Judge Duffy, it is said, having fallen into line. Among the possible appointees of the Board is Assemblyman Edward F. Hagau, Tammany leader of the Sixteenth District, to whom, it is said, will fall the extremely lucrative position of Chief Clerk of the Court of Special Sessions.

JUMPED INTO THE RIVER.

ears old, of 307 East Forty-fourth street, was found floating in the river at the foot of East found floating in the river at the foot of East Forty-serventh street this morning.

Mrs. King rushed out of her house last night, clad only in a light called dress, and ran to the foot of East Forty-second street, where she plunged into the river.

The tide carried her out in midstream, and she sank before assistance could be rendered.

The had a husband and several shiftern, and had been deepondent for several weeks.

Her Defense in the Coming Murder Trial.

Her Counsel, Mr. Howe, Predicts Her Triumphant Acquittal.

that the Woman Bought the Pistol to Kill Major Pettus.

Important Documents to Be Withheld at To-Morrow's Inquest.

Was Jealousy of Rosa Lloyd the Inciting Motive to the Deed?

Warden Osborne, of the Tombs, is very strict his observance of Dr. Magee's instructions with regard to Mrs. Hanna M. couthworse, the murderess of Major Stephen Pettus, the Brookyn millionaire. Up to noon to-day she had been allowed to receive no visitor or talk with any one about her affairs since last Saturday afternoon, when her mother and Mrs. Byron Andrews visited her. She has received a trunkful of clothing, but Their Occupation.

The organ-grinders will be allowed to grind. The organ-grinders will be allowed to grind. This is expected to be the result of to-morrow's meeting of the Board of Aldermen.

No report has been formulated by the Law Committee, which has been considering the amendment or repeal of the ordinance prohibiting the playing of itinerant musicians in the streets, but it is generally understood that the report will but partially remedy the wrong. An amendment will be recommended excepting the organ-grinders from the prohibition, it is said; but even they will be limited as to the hours during which they can ply their calling, and the sections of the city in which they are to play.

The embargo will not be recommended to be removed from the bands, it is said, bacause beyond this nothing has been done for her com-

ABANDONED TO DESPAIR.

Although she is at liberty to walk in the corridor at certain lours, sile seems to prefer to remain in her cell, where she sits brooding over her troubles, and seemingly has given herself over to absolute despair.

The matron thinks that she is now beginning to realize the enormity of her crime and to appreciate what its consequences may be, although during the past two days she has said nothing which showed any regret or penitence for the act, but, on the contrary, seemed to glory in it.

'None of her relatives came to see her yesterday, said the Warden. 'and if they had they could not have gone into the prison. The lady is getting the best of care, has everything she wants, and will very probably be all right tomorrow—that is, as far as she can be, for I don't believe she will ever be in her right mind." MB. HOWE IN CHARGE.

Mr. Hummel, who up to the present time has seen the representative of the prisoner, an-counced this morning that the case was out of nounced this morning that the case was out of his hands, and would hereafter be managed by Mr. Howe.

The latter was at his office early this morning and told a reporter of The Evenino World that Mrs. Martin, the mother of Mrs. Southworth, had an appointment to meet him this afternoon and visit the prisoner.

Since the shooting of Pettus the mother has been so prostrated by illness, caused by the shocking news of her daughter's act, that she could not leave the house. PREDICTS AN ACQUITTAL.

"Mrs. Southworth," said Mr. Howe in a decided tone, "will be triumphantly acquitted on her trial, and I am saying this advisedly. She would be acquitted just the same even if the defense was not that of insanity.

MYSTERIOUS DOCUMENTS. "There are facts in this case, set forth in documents, which have not yet come out, but which will in due time be made public, which will furnish a complete justification for her

"Why cannot they be given out now?"
"Simply because I do not propose to disclose my side of the case. A general does not unmask his batteries before the battle, nor does the climax of the play come in the first act. NOT TO BE GIVEN AT THE INQUEST.

NOT TO BE GIVEN AT THE INQUEST.

"We do not propose even to let any of this evidence, which is of the most sensational character over employed in a criminal proceeding, get out at the Coroner's inquest.

"We are prepared to have the Coroner hold her for indictment, and the only thing that we shall ask for, and a special request will be made to the District-Attorney to that effect, is that the case be brought to trial speedily.

"The interests of instice demand it, for this case is not an ordinary one, but a most extraordinary one. I am couvinced that a long delay would kill this woman.

THE "CRIVALEY" PLEA.

THE "CHIVALBY" PLEA. "Here you have an accomplished lady, nervous and high-strung to an unusual degree. Her heart is boiling with het Southern blood, and she is check-full of sentiment and the ideas of honor and chivalry.

"It is this deprivation of her honor that has driven her to madness, and this brooding and brooding over the wound that was festering in her heart that led her to commit the terrible act. She simply thought herself into a condition of insanity, as many people have done before, when they are not responsible for their acts. acts.
"She cannot be convicted on the evidence.
No jury would do it.

PLANNING THE DEFENSE.

Mr. Howe went over shortly before noon, and onsulted with his client as to her defense. She howed interest in the plan to be adopted.

whowed interest in the plan to be adopted.

AT THE SOUTHWORTHS ROME.

An EVENING WORLD reporter called at Mrs. Southworth's home. 335 Lafayette avenue, where her mother and brothers reside.

The family live on the top floor, and in answer to the reporter's summons a fair-haired waiting-maid opened the door. The reporter inquired for Mr. Martin. Mrs. Southworth's brother, but the girl said that he had gone out.

Further inquiry brought out the fact that the entire family had gone out early this moroling. The girl couldn't say whether they they had gone to New York to see the prisoner in the Tombs or not. She was familiar with the affairs of the family, but couldn't say whether it was Mrs. Lloyd or somebody else who first introduced Mrs. Southworth to Petus.

BOSA LLOYD INVISIBLE. BOSA LLOYD INVISIBLE.

The reporter afterwards called at the home of Mrs. Lloyd. It is a handsome brown-atone residence on Latayette avenue, in the vicinity of the unfinished Cathedral.

The shades were down at the windows, and in response to the reporter's pull at the bell a dry. wizened-up old woman opened the door about two inches. o inches. "I would like to see Mrs. Lloyd," said the reporter.

"She can't be seen. Neither can her father.
Mr. Robert Murrell."

"I would like to see them in order to get their side of the story that Mr. Pettra was introduced to Mrs. Bouthworth by Mrs. Lloyd."

"Mrs. Lloyd has no statement to make to the newspapers just now." answered the woman, "and you must excuse me from saying more."

THIS IS WHAT HAPPENED HERE ONE HUNDRED AND SIX YEARS AGO TO-DAY.

The theory of the police now is that Ross.
Lloyd was the writer of the letter found in Mr.
Pettus, pocket, and that lealousy of Mrs. Iloyd cansed Mrs. Southworth to commit the fatal cansed Mrs. Southworth to commit the fatal deed.

Mr. Howe refused to-day to talk about the disclosures made in regard to the alleged relations between Mrs. Southworth, Mrs. Hosa Lloyd and Major Pettus.
He was very positive, however, in his denial that Mrs. Southworth had ever accepted a penny from Pettus at any time during their acquaintance. On the contrary, she had refused every offer he made to provide for her and preferred to take her own methods of revenge upon him for the wrong he had done her.

18 THERE A CONFESSION ?

for the wrong he had done her.

She had, it is said, obtained from him a complete confession of all that she had accused him of, and evidence regarding other matters, in the shape of letters and signed statements, with which she could at any time have disgraced him before the world.

All these documents, it is stated, are now in the hancs of Messre, Howe & Hummel, ready to be used on the trial. TRACING THE REVOLVER.

Capt. McLaughlin is very busy getting evidence to lay before the Coroner's jury tomorrow. One of the most important features is the tracing of the revolver with which the crime was committed.

The Captain thinks that be has discovered the desier from whom Mrs. Southworth procured the weapon about two weeks ago. It is a Smith & Wesson, of 35-calibre, and is numbered 217,376. This dealer says that he exchanged such a weapon with a woman about two weeks ago, who gave him a 32-calibre revolver of the same make and $5 to boot.

DESCRIPTED MASS. SOUTHWORTH.

DESCRIBES MRS. SOUTHWORTH. His description of the woman's dress corresponds with that of Mrs. Southworth's walking suit. He says he could not identify the woman. suit. He says he could not identify the woman. She wanted to exchange the pistol because the spring was too stiff for her to work easily. Among his stock was found another 38-calibre revolver of the same make, of the number 217,-588. Capt. McLaughlin has telegraphed to the makers, at Springfield, for a record of the sale f these revolvers, but has not yet received any reply. DEPENDED BY DEAN M'NULTY. In a sermon presched at St. John's Roman Catholic Church, Paterson, yesterday, Dean McNulty made the Southworth case the text for a very vigorous discourse on the immoralities of men. He declared that Petius deserved what he got if he was guilty of the treatment alleged towards the unfortunate woman.

HANNA'S MOTHER APPLAUDS HER. HANNA'S MOTHER APPLAUDS HER.
This afternoon the mother of Mrs. Southworth arrived at the Tombs. She is a fine-looking old lady of about sixty years, with snowwhite hair, which formed a striking contrast with the sombre black of her attire.

"Hanna did right, the scoundrel got what he deserved," were her first words as she greeted Lawyer Howe on entering his office. SCENE IN THE CELL.

Mrs. Martin went over to the Tombs with her son, and was admitted to her daughter's cell alone. She refused to talk with reporters who were present when she went in. SORBED ON HEB NECK.

ROBBED ON HER NECK.

The meeting of the mother and daughter was most affecting. When her mother entered the little cell Mrs. Southworth at once recognized her, and immping up from her cot with an exclamation of loy threw her arms about the old lady's neck and burst into sobbing.

The attendants left them alone. They remained for a long time together, and Mrs. Martin did not leave the prison until nearly 2 o'clock. She went immediately over to her home in Brooklyn.

Mrs. PETTUS VERVILL.

MRS. PETTUS VERY ILL. The widow of the murdered Major Pettus was prostrated this morning. All inquirers at the nome of the nurdered man were told that Mrs. Pettus was very ill and could not be seen.

ONLY A CAT WAS BURNED.

Many Lives Imperilled in a Norfolk

Street Tenement-House Fire.

Shortly before three o'clock this morning the anitor of the five-story tenement house 139 Norfolk street was awakened by the smell of smoke and, groping his way to the door, found the halls full of smoke which seemed to increase every minute.

Increase every minute.

Increase in the house, numbering nearly one hundred persons, and when the lanter gave the alarm there was an immediate the control of the contr liste panic.

The halls were soon filled with wailing women.
Trightened children and excited men. Housekeeper Steck had lit the gas in the hall and it keeper Bleck had lit the gas in the hall and it helped them out.

Neighboring tenements threw open their doors to receive the homeless, half-clad throng that troeped out in shawls and blankets, or shivering without any.

Mrs. Rebinson, one of the tenants, is in delicate health, and was thrown into a dangerous fit of liness. Her husband groped his way to a drug store on the corner, and fell, exhausted and choking, on the door-step in a dead faint. A young man from the street carried out their three children, all half smothered.

When it was all over the Robinson's pet cat was found smothered and dead in their room.

The fire started among some empty cigarboxes in Heyman Robinson's candy store on the ground floor. It was extinguished after a loss of about $150.

Murphy Won't Fight McCarthy. PERCIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Bosrow, Nov. 25. -Johnny Murphy is afraid to trust his broken arm, and consequently the fight between him and Cal McCarthy is off. McCarthy will fight George Dixon if he wins his coming match with young Hornbacker.

Stars and Stripes Mark the 106th Anniversary of Evacuation Day.

The banishment of royalty from Brazil and the entrance of a new Republic into the grand sisterhood of American States lends added significance to the one hundred and sixth anniversary of the evacuation of the city of New York by the British troops, Nov. 25, 1783, On that day vanished the last embiem of royal dominion in this great Republic of the United States, and our free Government became firmly established.

The anniversary is not extensively celebrated to-day. At suprise the National colors were hoisted on the old fort at One Hundred and Tenth street by Adit, J. Gould Warner, who has performed this patriotic duty every Fourth of July and Evacuation Day for twenty-two

This ceremony was under the charge of the war veterans of 1812, Gen. Abraham Dailey

The veterans lunch at 2 p. w. at Military Hall. 193 Bowery, after which they march to the City Hall to be reviewed by Mayor Grant Twelve members of the Second Battalion Irish Volunteers, five members of the First Company Continental Guard and a number of Mexican Continental Guard and a number of Mexican war veterans participate in the ceremonies.

By invitation of William B. Overton, the patriots will dine at 436 Broome street, and later will visit Worth's Museum, Fourteenth street and Fourth avenue.

In accordance with time-honored custom the Old Guard will meet at their armory, Fourteenth street and Fifth avenue, at 1 p. m., and proceed to the Battery by Elevated train, where, with a detail of two guns and fifty men from the Second Battery, a salute of forty-three guns will be fired.

with a detail of two guns and fifty men from the Second Battery, a salute of forty-three guns will be fired.

A review of the Old Guard by the Mayor at the City Hail follows, and the day's observance will close with a dinner at the Hoffman House.

Among the guests at the dinner will be Mayor Grant, Computedler Myers. Postmaster Van Cott, Dr. Channeey M. Depew, Gen. W. T. Sherman, Gen. Daniel E. Sickles, Gen. Sloom. Gen. Howard, Gen. Tremaine, Admiral Braine and many other distinguished naval and military men.

and many other distinguished naval and military mon.

John A. Dix Post 135, G. A. R., at 2 R. M., presented a set of colors to the Normal College of the City of New York, in the College chapel.

At Delmonico's, this evening, there will be a meeting of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution to celebrate the success of their forefathers fight against the British.

An eloquent and patriotic address commemorative of the events of Evacuation Day was made last evening by Grand Master Julius Harburger, of the Independent Order of the Free Sons of Israel, at an official invitation to Zion Lodge in its rooms. 325 Bowery.

Flags are flying from City Hall to-day and from the Old Fort in Central Park.

BURNED TO DEATH.

Eight of Sixty-five Inmates of an Idaho Asylum Perish in Flames. (SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, )

BLACKFOOT, Idaho, Nov. 25.—The Territorial Asylum wasi destroyed by fire yesterd y morning. Fifty-seven out of sixty-five inmates were rescued, while two women and two men are known to have perished, and four are yet missing and are supposed to have been burned.

The building was partially and the contents totally destroyed. The loss is estimates at $300,000. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

LYNCHED BY A MOB,

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Nov. 25. - Word has been HOPKINSVILLE, KY., Nov. U.S.—Word has been treceived here that Joseph A. Smith, who killed We'H. Williams. Town Marshal of Trenton, a village on the Lonisville and Nashville Railroad, two weeks as was taken from Jail at Elkton, County seat of Todd County, last night by a mob and hanged to a tree in the Court-House yard. Smith shot Williams while he was unarmed and writing a warrant for his arrest. He escaped, but was captured in Tennessee last week and brought to Elkton.

The reception in honor of the engagement of Miss Alice Salomon and Mr. Louis Edelmuth at the residence of the betrothed maiden's sister and brother-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Max Hartmann. at 340 East Fifty-first street, on Sunday evening, resolved itself into a most enjoyable party. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Wolff, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Adler. Mr. and Mrs. David Seligman. Mr. L. Goldman, the Misses Carrie. Flora and Nora Fleischauer. Miss Belle Edelmuth. Mr. and Mrs. S. Mileus. Mr. and Mrs. N. Bernstein, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hoffheimer. Mr. and Mrs. D. Auerbach. Mr. A. Edelmuth and Mr. Jacob Fleischauer. Beside music and dancing Master Louis Hartmann gave a clever recitation, and Master Joseph Beihlf and Miss Lilly Beihilf won applause in amateur tragedy. the residence of the betrothed maiden's sister Elluabeth Ruces Postponed. There will be no racing at Elizabeth to-day on account of the heavy rain and bad condition of the track.

PRICE ONE CENT.

The Ex-Minister to Germany Expires at Brussels This Morning.

He Was Appointed by President Cleveland in 1885.

Once He Was Nominated for Vice Presie

dent with George B. McClellan. INPECIAL CABLE TO THE EVENING WORLD. 1 BRUSSELS, Nov. 25 .- George H. Pendleton, ex-Minister to Germany, died to-day.

George Hunt Pendleton was born in Cincinnati, O., July 25, 1825. His father was ex-Congressman Nathaniel Greene Pendleton. He received an academic education, studied law and was admitted to the Bar in Cinemnati. He was a member of the State Senate in

GEORGE E. PENDLETON. 854.5, and was elected to Congress on the Democratic ticket in 1856, serving until 1865.

He was a member of the Committee on Military Affairs during each term, and in the Thirty-eighth Congress served on the Committee of Ways and Means, and as the Thirty-eighth Congress served on the Committee of Ways and Means, and as Chairman of the Special Committee on admitting members of the Cabinet to the floor of the House of Representatives.

He was nominated for the Vice-Presidency on the ticket with George B. McClellan for President in 1864.

He was appointed United States Minister of Germany by President Cleveland in 1885.

Mr. Pendleton was an unsuccessful condicate for Governor of Ohio in 1869, and the same year was elected President of the Kensucky Railroad Company.

In 1878 he was elected United States Senator and as Chairman of the Committee on Cytic Service Reform, June 26, 1882, introduced a resolutionfinatructing, the Committee to inquire whether any attempt is being made to levy and collect assessments for political partisan purposes from any employees of the Government."

Mr. Pendleton, in 1846, married Alicadaughter of Francis Scott Key. Mrs. Pendleton and her daughter were killed in a renaway in Central Park about a year ago, and their death produced a marked effect upon Mr. Pendleton.

In April of last year Mr. Pendleton was the victin of a stroke of apopiexy, from the effects of which, it is thought, he never fully recovered.

CRISIS FOR JUDGE OREILLY.

Hovering Between Life and Death at Home in Marien Street. Police Justice Daniel O'Reilly is seriously ill with pneumonia at his home, 64 Marion street, to night. He caught a severe cold on election night and was doctored for bronchitis. Last Thursday, however, he was confined to his bed, and since Friday night has been hovering between life and death.

His physician, Dr. S. J. Lahey, of 7 Prince street, has forbidden all visitors to enter the sick man's room, and some members of his immediate family are excluded.

TO DISCIPLINE BAMRERGER.

Ex-Coroner Nugent Rises to Crush One of the Head Robels.

Mr. Peter C. Bamberger, leader of the oppoition of Republican Boss John R. Nugent in the sition of Republican Boss John R. Nugent in the Fourteenth Assembly District, has been an aggravating thorn in the side of the ex-Coroner for a long time, and Mr. Nugent proposes to bluck him out.

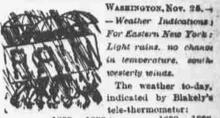

He has preferred charges of treason the fusionists and of working with Tammany Hall against the worthy Mr. Bamberger, and has cited him to appear at 178 First avenue this evening to show cause why his name should not be stricken from the roll of loyal Republicans. Mr. Bamberger says that he proposes to be there and will have his mouth with him.

MORE ALIBI TESTIMONY. Little Done in the Cronin Trial To-Day-Begge In a Sick Mas.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] CHICAGO, Nov. 25. -To-day, in the Cronist rial, testimony in the line of alibis for Kunz, O'Sullivan and Coughlin was given, but nothing startling or important was brought out. Beggs is a sick man. He fainted from em-haustion this morning.

Murdered Both Husband and Wife, ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Pinz Cirv. Minn., Nov. 25.—William Brooker yesterday shot down in cold blood William P. Coombs and wife. After committing the double murder he went to a ne ighbor's house, sat down with his rife across his knees and conversed colly concerning his bloody deed. He is still t liberty.

Light Rains, Southwesterly Winds.

1880. 1883.

Overcoats, Ulsters and Cape Costs of the choicest materials and highest grade of work. manship, in very large variety, for men and boys, at greatly reduced prices. Yogel Brothers, of Broadway and Houston St., and Eighth Avenue and 42d St. ***